

Quaker Quest

Discover a Spiritual path for our time

Shrewsbury Quaker Meeting will be holding a series of Quaker Quest sessions to explore the Quaker way.

Quaker Quest aims to help people find out about the Quaker way of life. We have found that people enquiring about us want to experience Quaker worship, hear why being a Quaker matters to us, talk to each other and us about it and get an idea what sort of people we are.

Join us at 6.30 for free refreshments for a 7pm start on any or all of these dates

Quaker Quest sessions are open to anyone. There is no cost and we never ask anyone, under any circumstances, to sign up to a set of beliefs.

A typical Quaker Quest session offers:

- A friendly, informal and relaxed welcome with light refreshments
- Short talks from three Quakers who share their personal faith experiences
- Discussion in which everyone can explore spiritual issues
- An experience of Quaker worship
- An opportunity to ask questions and talk over any spiritual matters

The evenings are offered as four sessions once a week. But they aren't a course. You don't have to go to all of them or sign up to anything. You are welcome to come and go as you please.

The stillness at the core of Quaker worship, together with the spiritual and social values derived from it, are as needed today as they ever have been.
